

Problem F2203

Learning Word 3

Another two years later, when your little brother is 7 years old, he has learned a lot of English word from you. One morning when you were having breakfast, he appeared on your side and said 3 words to you, but you forgot the meaning of the second word. Since you need to catch the school bus, you just wrote down the second word on your notebook and decided to look up the dictionary when you arrived the school.

Input

The input consists of 1 line contains 3 words separated by a blank space. Each word has at least 1 and at most 20 lower-case characters.

Output

Print the word you wrote down on your notebook.

Sample Input

pen pineapple apple

Sample Output

pineapple